U. S. Third Beats Off Savage Counter-Attacks Near Luxembourg

(By International News Service)

Allied heavy bombers ranged over Germany last night and early today in their round-the-clock bombings supporting the mighty land army offensives against the Reich from the eastern and western fronts.

An armada of more than 1300 British heavy bombers went out again to blaze Nazi industry and transportation while fires were still burning from the massive raids of the previous 24 hours in which more than 3,000 warplanes took part.

The RAF bombers dropped explosives on rail yards and supply points in Chemnitz, 35 miles southwest of Dresden, shattered an oil plant at Rosicz south of Leipzig, and poured more flaming steel into panic-stricken Berlin with its ceasing refugees.

The German air raid warning radio chain indicated that the Yanks again had taken up the task at daylight today, broadcasting reports that heavy bombers were over Northwestern Germany at 10 a. m. London time.

While Allied bombers scourged the Reich night and day from the air, the Soviet First Ukrainian Army surged northward along the west bank of the Oder River for almost 13 miles and engulfed 200 more German towns and villages, including Neusalz, 75 miles northwest of encircled Breslau and less than 100 miles from Berlin.

Jap Aircraft Center Blasted Anew Today

By William E. Zimmerman

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(INS)—The Jap aircraft manufacturing center of Nagoya was blasted anew today by mighty formations of United States Superfortress bombers.

An hour after Washington headquarters of the 20th Air Force revealed a fresh daylight assault by B-29's on the main Jap home island of Honshu the Nipponese Domei agency announced the principal target was Nagoya.

Domei, according to a wireless dispatch recorded by the FCC, said that in addition to the Nagoya area targets in the Mie prefecture were hammered.

Both high explosive bombs and incendiaries were dropped in the attack carried out at 2 p. m. Japanese time (1 a. m. EWT). Domei said.

The Jap agency asserted that only "negligible damage" was caused to ground installations.

The assault was carried out by Marianas-based Superfortresses, the brief initial communique of the 20th Air Force said.

Earlier Jap radio reports indicated that Tokyo possibly was among targets hit by the B-29's.

CONGRATULATIONS

The Community of Doylestown, quite as much as the editor of the Doylestown Intelligencer, is to be congratulated on the long and excellent service signalized by a dinner last night to George S. Hotchkiss.

Fifty years ago Mr. Hotchkiss entered the employ of the Intelligencer, which was edited by his father, Clarence Hotchkiss.

He began as newsboy, then served as printer's devil, and learned the mechanical end of the plant. Later he became reporter.

Upon his father's death nearly twenty-five years ago he succeeded as editor.

That makes a total of seventy-five years of service to the community by one family—seventy-five years devoted to the American pattern of progress by co-operation.

For forty years, nearly every Doylestown activity has felt the stimulus and the impress of the personality of George S. Hotchkiss.

He was active in the home-front protection during the First World War; the care of the dependents of disabled soldiers; the development of community athletic facilities; the organization of such groups as the Rotary Club, the Doylestown Community Recreation Field, the Welfare Council, the Emergency Relief Board;—right down to the present.

Sounding board and spearhead for much of this community enterprise was his widely known newspaper column, "The Gossip," which he has issued for forty years with scarcely a break.

From his native community Mr. Hotchkiss drew a stock of stout-hearted courage and tenacity and vision which, through more than two generations, he has repaid manifold.

WELL-FOUNDED FEAR

According to the Berlin radio, there is fear in Tokyo that Russia may enter the war against Japan as a result of the Big Three conference. And it is not necessary to regard the Berlin radio as trustworthy to give credence to the report. The Japanese have enough to worry about with the tremendous growth of American power in the Pacific, but there is no reason to minimize Japanese concern over the possibility of Soviet attack. Japan is fully aware of the Soviet's attitude toward her. Tokyo's fear of having Russia as an active foe is founded on solid ground.

Nazi leaders have called upon Germans to do their best or die. At any rate, they are dying.

Classified as unimportant but interesting news would be a word from both Spain and Argentina on trend of the war.

Ecuador, which has finally declared war on Japan, can not be accused of having acted hastily.

Sweden, like other countries, will face reconversion problems after the war, including the problem of what to do with those Stockholm factories that turn out the rumors.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

The Right To Know

Washington, Feb. 15. THERE IS, of course, vastly more to the Black Sea conference than the official communiqué. Aside from the general approbation of the announced agreements, most of which were inevitable, the question arises as to how much more we are to be told. A day or so ago, an authoritative Administration spokesman said that when Mr. Roosevelt returns he undoubtedly will acquaint a group of selected House and Senate members with the "background" of the Black Sea conference, in order that they may understand more fully the agreements there reached. He will not, it was said, address the entire Congress, nor even the nation except in a general way. But, he does think it desirable for certain key men to know what is behind the official communiqué. These, he will invite to the White House for a talk.

THIS, of course, is very kind of the President, very kind, indeed. But it is by no means satisfactory either to Congress or to the American people. That is the way they were treated after the Teheran conference and, in fact, after every one of the several international conferences which he has attended. There are signs that both Congress and the people are getting extremely tired of the treatment. The President has not gone to these conferences representing himself. He has gone representing the country, and the country has a right to know more about them from him than it has known before. It is tired of being talked down to on international affairs; it is tired of being told only what he thinks it well for it to know; it is tired of having no independent channel of information on these vital matters.

IN THE PAST, news of where and when these conferences were held has come to us first from England and Russia. And after they were over, the real information as to what was discussed and what was done has come to us not from our own President but through the British Prime Minister's full and frank reports to the House of Commons. At no time has Mr. Roosevelt talked to the American people with the candor Mr. Churchill has talked to the British people. For a long time there has been increasing resentment on this count. It was strongly voiced the other night by Governor Dewey in his Lincoln Day speech and newspapers, generally, are increasingly restive over the way in which Mr. Roosevelt has sidetracked the press, made it impossible for newspaper men to accompany him and arrogated to himself the sole right to inform the people.

UPON his return the President attempts, as his spokesman has indicated, to continue this policy, the expression of discontent will be very much more concrete and emphatic. Apparently, except for a possible reassuring radio talk to the nation, he proposes to confine his "background" conversations to the aforesaid selected group and the White House press conferences, which he controls so completely that he is able patronizingly to laugh off any question he does not want to answer, and talk entirely on his own terms. If this happens again, the people and Congress will get no more of the real story of the conference than they did of the Teheran conference, about which it is agreed they got very little. If there were military or security reasons for this sort of reticence, no one would protest. But these reasons do not seem to exist—certainly not as far as Mr. Churchill is concerned. The kind of secret diplomacy which the President has been pursuing in these conferences is a vast contrast to the "open covenants openly arrived at" of Woodrow Wilson. It does not sit well with the people and it is time it was abandoned.

THERE seems, particularly, no excuse for it now in view of the wholehearted Republican support for his foreign policy, which has been given Mr. Roosevelt recently, by Mr. Ernest Lindley, one of the President's great friends, wrote the other day, "No President engaged in crucial international negotiations could ask more of the opposing political party at home than Mr. Roosevelt has received during the last few weeks." The speeches of Governor Dewey, Senators Vandenberg and Mr. John Foster Dulles, the letter of the freshmen senators, the resolution of Senator Ferguson and the significant silence of the shrunken group of dissenters have all proclaimed that the people are overwhelmingly united in their international objectives.

AND, except from Senator Wheeler, he has almost complete support from the anti-New Deal Democrats—such as Senator Byrd. All of this, as Mr. Lindley says, strengthened the President's hand very much. Considering these things, for him to come back this time and talk to the people through controlled and patronized press conferences and a platitudinous radio pronouncement, is going to be pretty hard to take. If he can do this without protest about this conference, there seems no reason he cannot do it about the peace conference to follow. It is to be hoped that the spokesman is wrong and that Mr. Roosevelt will see fit to tell the full story this time in the Churchill way, omitting only those things for which there is sound reason for keeping confidential. We are entitled to know a great deal more than is contained in an official communiqué—and we ought not to have to get it from Mr. Churchill.

FIRST TEST OF PEACE PLAN

sign an alliance with Great Britain "as soon as she may be willing to agree to what is vital for us concerning Germany" and with the United States "when—after the battles of Europe and the Far East have been decided—we shall have recovered full liberty of action and all our territories."

The solidarity of the Big Three concerning France is in odd position from the outset, since the French defiance of the Big Three is based, according to de Gaulle's own words, with a separate alliance with one of the Big Three who may end the war with the greatest authority and power—Russia.

It is an unfortunate result of the de Gaulle address that whatever France now receives will be interpreted in some quarters as being the results of pressure rather than justice and common good.

If the Russo-French pact really covers the ground de Gaulle seems to believe it does, and if it is maintained, developments in the peace conversations may place Stalin in an anomalous position—bound on one side to the Big Three itself, and on the other by the perhaps conflicting desires and interests of his new ally, France.

Some of the most touchy and complicated problems of world peace still need to be threshed out.

While it is easy for enthusiasts to argue, of the Crimea conference, that "well begun is half done," the fact remains that frequently it is easier to start something than to finish it.

Half a loaf may be better than none—but half a bridge isn't.

TWO HIGH SCHOOL FIVES WILL PLAY ON LOCAL COURT

Bristol Varsity and Junior Varsity to Play Falls Teams

TAP-OFF AT 7.30 P. M.

Triumph Tonight for Bristol Means Lower Bucks Crown

Bristol High's varsity and junior varsity teams have an opportunity of clinching the Lower Bucks County championship tonight when they meet the Falls Township high school quintets on the local court. Opening tap-off is scheduled for 7.30 o'clock.

Coach Harold Stackhouse's boys have won four straight games and have not been beaten in Lower Bucks competition. Their closest opponent in the league race is Morrisville who has already lost two games, so a Bristol triumph tonight means the crown whether it wins or loses its final game of the season with Morrisville.

Falls and Bristol clashed in Trenton on Tuesday night with Bristol being the victors by an overwhelming score. The localites are anxious to repeat and bring the championship back to the local school as they did in football and also give Coach Stackhouse two championships in his first year of coaching at Bristol.

It is most likely that DiAngelo, Keyes, Embess, Oriola and Mandie will be in Bristol's starting line-up.

Coach "Bill" Bartholomew's J. Vees are also planning for a championship. Their record in league competition is the same as the varsity and a win tonight will make them the new Lower Bucks champions. Coach Bartholomew's lad have been beaten but once this season.

CATHOLIC BOYS WILL ATTEMPT WIN TONIGHT

The Catholic Boys Club will attempt to break into the win column of the Bristol Youth League tonight when it meets the Fifth Ward Sports. In the second encounter, the Harriman Methodists meet the Third Ward Eagles.

The Catholic Boys team has lost three straight contests and feel that it is due for its initial triumph. The Eagles must win tonight to stay in the running for the playoffs.

Charles O'Brien Elected Head of Business Men

SOUTH LANGHORNE, Feb. 15.—The Associated Business Men of South Langhorne elected officers last evening when they met at Flannery's Restaurant.

Charles O'Brien succeeds Jacob Weller as president; and others chosen are: Joseph Keating, vice-president; Elwood Buck, secretary-treasurer; Harris Murray, William Shetline and John Vogt, directors.

The committee named to circulate petitions seeking local mail delivery reported that said petitions will be circulated when travel conditions improve.

Conditions of Bellevue Avenue near the Reading Railroad was discussed, and the association was advised that borough council is taking steps to improve such. The need for an overpass at Bellevue avenue and the railroad was discussed at great length. Traffic frequently is held up for long periods, it was stated, and the condition was described as a "bottle-neck."

Mr. Murray reported that the Langhorne Lions Club will conduct a card party in the near future for benefit of Langhorne high school football squad. Support of the local organization was sought.

An alleged unsanitary condition in the vicinity of Bellevue avenue and Durham Road was also complained of, and the matter is to be referred to borough council.

A resolution was passed seeking cooperation of the public in showing proper respect for the war memorial plaque at Bellevue avenue and the highway. Damage was done to it recently. The resolution is to be given place in the public press.

Sea-meeting will be marked by a sea-food dinner and a special entertainment.

the Frances Willard Fund for missions. Miss Verna Miller provided an interesting program on Frances Willard's life.

The attention of all members is called to the change in the date of meeting from the second Tuesday to the second Monday of each month.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting is to be held in the Harriman Methodist Church, with Mrs. C. W. Berglund as leader. The outstanding feature of this meeting will be a speech contest, with children participating.

Robert Vansant reported on the insurance arranged for injured athletes. Mr. Vansant is president of that committee, with Russell Struble, secretary-treasurer; and Francis Borman, vice-president. The latter represents the Alumni.

Bids for painting the exterior of the high school and six class rooms were opened, contract being awarded to Theodore Staudenmeyer & Sons, low bidders. Board members will make a tour of inspection of school buildings and grounds during the second week in March. Term requisitions for general supplies have been received from teachers and are being prepared for submission to bidders within the next week.

Trio of Men is Killed in Action; One Now Missing

his life in Germany is January 30th.

Staff Sgt. Mullin, who was in his 21st year, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mullin, 339 Cedar street. A sister, Lorraine, aged 10 years, also survives.

The young man entered the service two years ago, and went overseas last September. He had trained at Camp Atterbury, Ind., and at a camp in South Carolina. He had previously been employed by Hunter Mfg. Corp., at its Emilie plant.

Sgt. Mullin was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Pvt. William R. Hardy, aged 19, who is missing in action in France as of January 31st, is the son of Mildred and the late Robert Hardy. His home is at 1146 Beaver street.

He entered the army infantry in October, 1942, and went overseas last April after training at Camp Wheeler, Ga. He was formerly employed at the plant of Warner Steel, also by Mr. Gosline, a local dealer.

Cpl. Stanley Seifert, 24, who lost his life in action in France on January 28th, is the husband of Geraldine Buckley Seifert, Woodland avenue, South Langhorne; and the son of Harry Seifert, a guard at the Bucks Co. prison at Doylestown, and Mrs. Seifert.

Cpl. Seifert served with the combat engineers, entering the army in October, 1942, and going overseas in October, 1944. He was employed as a carpenter by Matthew Buckley, South Langhorne. He is also survived by a son, Stanley Curtis Seifert, aged six months.

Of this amount $929.14 was collected from industrial plants and individuals. The balance was collected through motion picture houses in a drive conducted by the managers on their own initiative.

One-half of the total collected in the township and borough remains in the districts to aid locally the fight against infantile paralysis. The other half is sent to Washington, D. C., to be added to the national fund.

Figures are not available for other districts in the county, it was stated today, with the exception of Trevose School where 232 pupils contributed $156.30.

Farmers "Justified" Over Draft Concern

that it requires that work every day in the year, year in and year out. In view of grinding routine it is surprising how many boys and girls stay on the farm, become 4-H club members and Future Farmers and go on to farms of their own. At the risk of omitting many such father and son farms we should like to call attention to some outstanding examples: Walter and Norman Leedom; Charles Lowmes and his three sons, Charles, Jr., Bill and Harold; John Thompson and three sons, John, Jr., Harry and Rod; Willard Wright and John and Herb; Milton Satterthwaite and daughter Mary who is really interested in cows and whose 4-H heifer has won top honors for two years; James and Eastburn Smith; Homer and Kendall Tomlinson; Oscar and Clifford States; Isaac Yates and Junior Yates; Harry Wilson and sons, Ted, Philip and Orin Smith; John Stover and sons John and Bob; Joseph Halliwell and son Joseph, Jr. These are but a few of the many we think of off-hand and the recital of them is pertinent at the time when it is considered necessary to take young men from the farm. These boys have grown up on farms and are by now skilled farmers worth far more than unskilled replacements. Moreover they have an interest in the farm and hence make more valuable farmers. This is the normal evolution of our farm families and if we look at many other farmers on their own such as Ed Satterthwaite, Robert Stapler, Irvin Fulmer, Russell Smith, Homer Tomlinson, John Antribus, etc., we recognize them as the Junior partner of a few years ago. (Note how many of these father and son combinations appear on the Honor Roll below.)

3. Walter Leedom	42.1

14. Philip Smith	36.1

It has been such a long time since this column came out that we are snowed under with an accumulation of news. February marks the end of the Association testing year and before the final results are tabulated we might borrow a "prediction of things to come" from Drew Pearson and mention that the herds of Isaac Yates, Walter Leedom, Philip Smith, Charles Lowmes and George Hunsberger should be among the top herds for 1944.

Several promising animals have been purchased recently and should help the herds in which they have been placed. John Stover has purchased two registered Holstein cows one of whom made 66 lbs. of butterfat in December. Irvin Fulmer purchased a dandy calf from Milton Satterthwaite last month and then in a buying mood purchased a heifer calf from Joseph Halliwell & Son. He also brought to the lower end of the county calves from the Detweiler and Landis herds. All the calves are exceptionally promising and show that Irvin, who but recently took over the herd after his father's death, is looking ahead. Another excellent purchase was made by Samuel Shaddinger who bought a Dean of the rear grandson, whose dam has made two-yearly records of over 500 lbs. in Joseph Halliwell's herd.

Speaking of the Halliwell herd over near Ivyland makes us pause to mention the record made by that herd in December. Out of twenty cows milking, nine produced between fifty and ninety pounds of butterfat with seven of these producing over sixty pounds of butterfat, and the first four cows on the honor roll for testing group number 2 belonged to J. W. Halliwell & Son. Another herd which has been blazing up the association record trail is that of Willard Wright of Yardley who in January had thirteen out of twenty-six cows on the honor roll making the sizzling average of 46.6 pounds of butterfat per cow for the entire herd.

The herd of Homer Wentz has been milking extremely well of late showing the wisdom of his buys last summer when he bought several cows and heifers in the western part of the state. These cows, bred to his fine bull of Dean of Pearls' son should produce some more fine Holsteins in a few years. Two final sales of bull calves concludes the sales news for this month. In addition to selling a heifer calf to the Fulmer herd Milton Satterthwaite has sold a bull calf to Alfred Krusen and another to George Yates. This makes the fourth bull calf sold from this herd this year and is some indication of how his bull, Dunloggin Confident Lleenman's offspring are regarded throughout the county. This bull and the bull owned by Robert Stapler are among the most popular in the artificial breeding work done in the County.

ARMADA OF 1300 BRITISH HEAVY BOMBERS BLAZES AGAINST GERMAN INDUSTRY AND TRANSPORTATION; OIL PLANT AT ROSICZ SHATTERED; CHEMNITZ IS HIT

Yanks Take Up Task At Daylight, According To Nazi Warning Chain

SOVIETS ADVANCING

U. S. Third Beats Off Savage Counter-Attacks Near Luxembourg

(By International News Service)

Allied heavy bombers ranged over Germany last night and early today in their 'round-the-clock' bombings supporting the mighty land army offensives against the Reich from the eastern and western fronts.

An armada of more than 1300 British heavy bombers went out again to blaze Nazi industry and transportation while fires were still burning from the massive raids of the previous 24 hours in which more than 3,000 warplanes took part.

The RAF bombers dropped explosives on rail yards and supply points in Chemnitz, 35 miles southwest of Dresden, shattered an oil plant at Rosicz south of Leipzig, and poured more flaming steel into panic-stricken Berlin with its seething refugees.

The German air raid warning radio chain indicated that the Yanks had taken up the task at daylight today, broadcasting reports that heavy bombers were over Northwestern Germany at 10 a. m. London time.

While Allied bombers scourged the Reich night and day from the air, the Soviet First Ukrainian Army surged northward along the west bank of the Oder River for almost 13 miles and engulfed 200 more German towns and villages, including Neusalz, 75 miles northwest of encircled Breslau and less than 100 miles from Berlin.

Jap Aircraft Center Blasted Anew Today

By William E. Zimmerman
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(INS)—The Jap aircraft manufacturing center of Nagoya was blasted anew today by mighty formations of United States Superfortress bombers.

An hour after Washington headquarters of the 20th Air Force revealed a fresh daylight assault by B-29's on the main Jap home island of Honshu the Nipponese Domei agency announced the principal target was Nagoya.

Domei, according to a wireless dispatch recorded by the FCC, said that in addition to the Nagoya area targets in the Mie prefecture were hammered.

Both high explosive bombs and incendiaries were dropped in the attack carried out at 2 p. m. Japanese time (1 a. m., EWT), Domei said.

The Jap agency asserted that only "negligible damage" was caused to ground installations.

The assault was carried out by Marianas-based Superfortresses, the brief initial communique of the 20th Air Force said.

Earlier Jap radio reports indicated that Tokyo possibly was among targets hit by the B-29's.

FIRST TEST OF PEACE PLAN

The first problem faced by the Big Three Powers of Churchill, Stalin and Roosevelt in launching a world peace organization at San Francisco next April lies in fitting France—Little Brother of the Allies—into a proper seat at the table of the world household.

The problem was acknowledged by the Crimea Report, though mentioned only by the statement that France will be invited to participate in future meetings.

The extent of the potential breach between General de Gaulle, ruler of France, and the Big Three considered as a whole, was made extremely clear by de Gaulle in the course of a speech on February 5 reporting to the French people on the results of his recent visit to Moscow.

De Gaulle announced the signing of a special alliance with Russia, entered into prior to the meeting of the Big Three—"a great and good alliance with strong and courageous Soviet Russia," he called it.

Strong in the new-found presence of a Big Brother, Little Brother spoke thus:

As for the arrangement of the future peace or any other arrangement that would concern it, we have informed our allies and we have said publicly that France would of course be bound by absolutely nothing that she had not had the opportunity to discuss and approve on the same grounds as the others.

The position which de Gaulle demanded for the France of the future is a far cry from conditions of a year or so ago, when France was helpless in the coils of the Hitler army, and de Gaulle himself little more than a fugitive from the Gestapo.

France would dominate Western Europe, aided on the one hand by satellite small nations and on the other by her alliance with Russia, according to the outline given by de Gaulle. He said:

I can state once more that the definite presence of a French force from one end of the Rhine to the other; the separation of the territories of the left bank of the river and of the Ruhr Basin from what will be the German state or states; the independence of the Polish, Czechoslovak, Austrian and Balkan nations in friendship with each of the nations that will have to bear the principal weight of maintaining peace in Europe—these are the conditions that France considers essential.

Replying in advance to those who may ask what France would do if the Allies as a group decided against some of these conditions, de Gaulle made himself very clear.

Mentioning that the French army is growing by leaps and bounds, he said:

We are not disturbed about the possibility that we shall have to carry out most of them, since there are 106,000,000 of us, living closely assembled under the French flag in the immediate neighborhood of what interests us most directly.

Point was given to this statement by the fact that, on the day after the Peace Report was issued, at a moment when the reaction of the French government was still in doubt, de Gaulle announced plans to build a huge naval and air base at Dakar—the point in Africa nearest approaching South America.

In his speech de Gaulle served notice that he would

TRIO OF MEN IS KILLED IN ACTION; ONE NOW MISSING

Lt. Elmer O. Bowers, Who Was Reported Missing, Now Listed as Dead

MULLIN LOSES LIFE

Pvt. Wm. R. Hardy is Missing; Cpl. Stanley Seifert is Killed

Current war casualty lists contain the names of a Bristol Township officer who is reported killed in action; a fourth ward youth missing in action; a first ward man and a South Langhorne man who also lost their lives.

The victims are:

1st Lt. Elmer O. Bowers, West Bristol, killed in action following previous information that he was missing.

Staff Sgt. William I. Mullin, Cedar street, killed in action.

Pvt. William R. Hardy, 1146 Beaver street, missing in action.

Cpl. Stanley Seifert, South Langhorne, killed in action.

1st Lt. Elmer O. Bowers, 26, according to a report received from the German government through the International Red Cross, "died on Sept. 19, 1944." As that is the date that he was listed as missing, and inasmuch as no additional information was received by the United States Government, Lt. Bowers is officially listed by the War Department as "killed in action."

It was in early October that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver Bowers, West Bristol, received a telegram stating that Lt. Bowers was missing in action over Germany as of Sept. 19th. A pilot of a Mustang (P-51) fighter, the Army Air Corps member was last seen by comrades in his formation heading toward Allied lines after his craft was damaged. His companions were hopeful that he would make safety; and one of his fellow-officers has given messages of hope in several letters, expressing the wish that he might tell what information has come to his hands. In the five intervening months no additional word was received from the government, until the telegram and a letter listing the young man as deceased, arrived at the Bowers home this week.

The young man entered the service in July, 1942, and went overseas in December, 1943. He was the recipient of the Aid Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters; the Distinguished Flying Cross; and his unit had received a Presidential citation. Lt. Bowers had been recommended for a captaincy. He graduated from Bristol high school in 1936. The young man, who had been employed by the O. K. O. Plush Co., at Hulmeville, prior to entering the service, was a member of a Croydon roller hockey team. He had received his "wings" at Lake Field, Arizona, in August, 1943.

One young man who lost his life in action is Staff Sgt. William L. Mullin. The date on which he lost

WHAT OUR BOYS ARE DOING TO WIN THE WAR

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE RECONNAISSANCE STATION, England, Feb. 15.—Staff Sergeant Charles J. Friel, 23, of Croydon, an instrument specialist, is one of the men charged with repair and maintenance of the highly sensitive and specialized instruments on modern operational aircraft. He works on Mosquitoes and B-17 Flying Fortresses.

Mosquitoes and Forts take off from here for lone missions over the North Atlantic and the continent, gathering weather data for future air and ground operations against the enemy. Mosquitoes also fly photographic reconnaissance missions, filming German military and industrial targets to scout the way for Eighth Air Force heavies, then return after raids to picture the damage done.

S/Sgt. Friel, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Friel, Emily avenue, Croydon, attended Bensalem high school, Cornwells Heights, Pa., and was a riveter in Bristol before entering the army in September, 1943. He is a graduate of airplane mechanic's school at Gulfport, Mississippi, and instrument specialist's school at Chanute Field, Illinois, and has been overseas since June, 1943, having been awarded the European Theater of Operations Ribbon with Bronze Star for participation of his unit in the aerial warfare over western Europe.

CANADIANS BATTLE FLOOD WATERS OF RHINE

Paris—Canadian First Army forces, battling flood waters of the Rhine as well as the Nazis, advanced steadily eastward across Reich territory today toward the communications center of Emmerich.

Rhine towns were inundated when the enemy opened sluice gates to impede the Canadian First Army advance. While troops above Cleve pressed ahead in the direction of Emmerich other forces to the south hammered forward against stiffening German resistance toward the Siegfried Line bastion town of Goch.

The 10,000 yard stretch of the west bank of the Rhine seized by the Allied forces on Tuesday was steadily expanded.

Fresh inroads into German Westwall fortifications were made by the Canadians behind withering aerial assaults which blasted German gun emplacements and helped the ground forces beat back Nazi counter-assaults.

CONGRATULATIONS

The Community of Doylestown, quite as much as the editor of the Doylestown Intelligencer, is to be congratulated on the long and excellent service signalized by a dinner last night to George S. Hotchkiss.

Fifty years ago Mr. Hotchkiss entered the employ of the Intelligencer, which was edited by his father, Clarence Hotchkiss.

He began as newsboy, then served as printer's devil, and learned the mechanical end of the plant. Later he became reporter.

Upon his father's death nearly twenty-five years ago he succeeded as editor.

That makes a total of seventy-five years of service to the community by one family—seventy-five years devoted to the American pattern of progress by co-operation.

For forty years, nearly every Doylestown activity has felt the stimulus and the impress of the personality of George S. Hotchkiss.

He was active in the home-front protection during the first World War; the care of the dependents of disabled soldiers; the development of community athletic facilities; the organization of such groups as the Rotary Club, the Doylestown Community Recreation Field, the Welfare Council, the Emergency Relief Board;—right down to the present.

Sounding board and spearhead for much of this community enterprise was his widely known newspaper column, "The Gossiper," which he has issued for forty years with scarcely a break.

From his native community Mr. Hotchkiss drew a stock of stout-hearted courage and tenacity and vision which, through more than two generations, he has repaid manifold.

WELL-FOUNDED FEAR

According to the Berlin radio, there is fear in Tokyo that Russia may enter the war against Japan as a result of the Big Three conference. And it is not necessary to regard the Berlin radio as trustworthy to give credence to the report. The Japanese have enough to worry about with the tremendous growth of American power in the Pacific, but there is no reason to minimize Japanese concern over the possibility of Soviet attack. Japan is fully aware of the Soviet's attitude toward her. Tokyo's fear of having Russia as an active foe is founded on solid ground.

Nazi leaders have called upon Germans to do their best or die. At any rate, they are dying.

Classified as unimportant but interesting news would be a word from both Spain and Argentina on trend of the war.

Ecuador, which has finally declared war on Japan, can not be accused of having acted hastily.

Sweden, like other countries, will face reconversion problems after the war, including the problem of what to do with those Stockholm factories that turn out the rumors.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

The Right To Know

Washington, Feb. 15. THERE IS, of course, a vast difference between the Black Sea conference and the official communiqué. Aside from the general approbation of the announced agreements, most of which were inevitable, the question arises as to how much more we are to be told. A day or so ago, an authoritative Administration spokesman said that when Mr. Roosevelt returns he undoubtedly will acquaint a group of selected House and Senate members with the "background" of the Black Sea conference, in order that they may understand more fully the agreements there reached. He will not, it was said, address the entire Congress, nor even the nation except in a general way. But he does think it desirable for certain key men to know what is behind the official communiqué. These he will invite to the White House for a talk.

THIS, of course, is very kind of the President, very kind, indeed. But it is by no means satisfactory either to Congress or to the American people. That is the way they were treated after the Teheran conference and, in fact, after every one of the several international conferences which he has attended. There are signs that both Congress and the people are getting extremely tired of the treatment. The President has not gone to these conferences representing himself. He has gone representing the country, and the country has a right to know more about them from him than it has known before. It is tired of being talked down to on international affairs; it is tired of being told only what he thinks it well for it to know; it is tired of having no independent channel of information on these vital matters.

IN THE PAST, news of where and when these conferences were held has come to us first from England and Russia. And after they were over, the real information as to what was discussed and what was done has come to us not from our own President but through the British Prime Minister's full and frank reports to the House of Commons. At no time has Mr. Roosevelt talked to the American people with the candor Mr. Churchill has talked to the British people. For a long time there has been increasing resentment on this count. It was strongly voiced the other night by Governor Dewey in his Lincoln Day speech and newspapermen generally are increasingly restless over the way in which Mr. Roosevelt has sidetracked the press, made it impossible for newspaper men to accompany him and arrogated to himself the sole right to inform the people.

IF UPON his return the President attempts, as his spokesman has indicated, to continue this policy, the expression of discontent will be very much more concrete and emphatic. Apparently, except for a possible recurring radio talk to the nation, he proposes to confine his "background" conversations to the aforesaid selected group and the White House press conferences, which he controls so completely that he is able patronizingly to laugh off any question he does not want to answer, and talk entirely on his own terms. If this happens again, the people and Congress will get no more of the real story of this conference than they did of the Teheran conference, about which it is agreed they got very little. If there were military or security reasons for this sort of reticence, no one would protest. But these reasons do not seem to exist—certainly not as far as Mr. Churchill is concerned. The kind of secret diplomacy which the President has been pursuing in these conferences is a vast contrast to the "open covenants openly arrived at" of Woodrow Wilson. It does not sit well with the people and it is time it was abandoned.

THERE seems, particularly, no excuse for it now in view of the wholehearted Republican support for his foreign policy which has been given Mr. Roosevelt recently. As Mr. Ernest Lindley, one of the President's great friends, wrote the other day, "No President engaged in crucial international negotiations could ask more of the opposing political party at home than Mr. Roosevelt has received during the last few weeks." The speeches of Governor Dewey, Senators Vandenberg and Mr. John Foster Dulles, the letter of the freshmen senators, the resolution of Senator Ferguson and the significant silence of the shrunken group of dissenters have all proclaimed that the people are overwhelmingly united in their international objectives.

AND, except from Senator Wheeler, he has almost complete support from the anti-New Deal Democrats—such as Senator Byrd. All of this, as Mr. Lindley says, strengthened the President's hand very much. Considering these things, for him to come back this time and talk to the people through controlled and patronized press conferences and a platitudinous radio pronouncement, is going to be pretty hard to take. If he can do this without protest about this conference, there seems no reason he cannot do it about the peace conference to follow. It is to be hoped that the spokesman is wrong and that Mr. Roosevelt will see fit to tell the full story this time in the Churchill way, omitting only those things for which there is sound reason for keeping confidential. We are entitled to know a great deal more than is contained in an official communiqué—and we ought not to have to get it from Mr. Churchill.

sign an alliance with Great Britain "as soon as she may be willing to agree to what is vital for us concerning Germany" and with the United States "when—after the battles of Europe and the Far East have been decided—we shall have recovered full liberty of action and all our territories."

The solidarity of the Big Three concerning France is in odd position from the outset, since the French defiance of the Big Three is based, according to de Gaulle's own words, with a separate alliance with the one of the Big Three who may end the war with the greatest authority and power—Russia.

It is an unfortunate result of the de Gaulle address that whatever France now receives will be interpreted in some quarters as being the results of pressure rather than justice and common good.

If the Russo-French pact really covers the ground de Gaulle seems to believe it does, and if it is maintained, developments in the peace conversations may place Stalin in an anomalous position—bound on one side to the Big Three itself, and on the other by the perhaps conflicting desires and interests of his new ally, France.

Some of the most touchy and complicated problems of world peace still need to be threshed out.

While it is easy for enthusiasts to argue, of the Crimea conference, that "well begun is half done," the fact remains that frequently it is easier to start something than to finish it.

Half a loaf may be better than none—but half a bridge isn't.

Letters To Editor

Child Care Center

Editor, Courier:

The Bristol Township Child Care Center in spite of the frigid weather and prevailing sickness has been holding its own and growing too.

Many good people have made it possible for us to supplement our very fine basic equipment with toys for the nursery that not only make it more attractive but help the children in their play to gain objectives that are of definite educational value.

If any part of our day can be said to be more important than another part it is certainly the time devoted to play. When children play they express their entire being, their emotional tendencies and personality traits. A teacher doesn't have to observe very long before she is likely to discover which child is aggressive, which one is a leader and full of ideas, which one is docile and which little girl is sure to see that things turn out her way.

Then, too, a child learns to fraternize in a group. Before he came to the Nursery his life revolved around adults. He was drawn to a brief interchange rather than the continuous interaction that takes place here. He learns to give and take, and becomes very skillful in many forms of co-operation. Then, too, he is learning many forms of motor activity that help him to become a more competent person—he learns to button and unbutton his clothes, lace his shoes, etc. The skills he learns in climbing and running form a basis for much of the foundation in his dealings with others socially.

The motor activities he learns too, directly influence his emotional stability and does away with many fear complexes he might develop. Now he can climb to heights, turn on and off lights, catch up by running if he falls behind on a walk, thus overcoming any fear he might have had of the dark or of being lost.

Intellectually they're gaining more than the casual observer realizes. They're learning to see by getting visual pictures and impressions. This is certainly educational progress. In the navy today, men are teaching pilots to observe quickly.

U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE
216 Mill St., Bristol, Pa.

Children are beginning to notice distance, size, shape, form, heavy and round and become familiar to them.

A concept of time is being built: time to wash, time to nap, etc.; this is all conducive to good habit formation.

A feeling for numbers is growing. The child is learning to count and to recognize numbers so that when he reaches the first grade he has this fundamental skill well established.

Then too, he is learning to talk. He has someone to talk with him. Language expression is developing and he feels free to express himself. Often a child is handicapped all through school because he has never felt free to express his thoughts.

A Reading Readiness is being built because the child's vocabulary is growing by the stories he hears and the experiences he shares with others.

Pre-School education is very important. The results are bound to be significant and the child's adjustment in first grade will be influenced by what has gone before. His adjustment in first grade in turn will influence all later adjustment in future grades.

All those who are eligible to send their children here—mother, working or father sleeping during the day—can gain a great deal by sending their children here.

We are set to care for the two and three year olds in the nursery and the four and five year olds in the kindergarten. School age children up to 12 may be enrolled arriving before school in the morning and in the afternoon after school hours.

All the children get a daily health inspection; juice and cod liver oil in the morning; a balanced dinner in the middle of the day; a nap period; milk and cookies in the afternoon.

Our program is diversified, giving the child a well balanced, healthy, happy day.

Call Bristol 2669 and ask for Mrs. Buckley for further information, or visit the Center at any time during the day. We are open from 6:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. six days a week.

MRS. SARA BUCKLEY,
Director,
Child Care Center.

NOW SHE SHOPS "CASH AND CARRY"

Without Painful Backache Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the waste out of the blood. If they are tired, the waste stays in the blood, and on the surface of the body, it causes a variety of ailments, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the waste from your blood flush out poisonous waste from your tissues. Get Doan's Pills.

By the Rev. Theo. Kohlmeier
(Pastor St. Luke's Ev. Lutheran Church, Croydon)

Scripture reading: John 8, 12-20. Text: "I am the Light of the world."

Lord God, heavenly Father, who didst in the beginning create all things and didst by the power of Thy Word cause light to shine in the darkness, we thank Thee also for sending that greater Light into this world. Thy Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, in this world of spiritual darkness, He alone can shed the light of the knowledge of Thy glory. By the power of the Holy Spirit He enlightens those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, giving them faith and hope. May all who have come to Thy Light also reflect it by letting their light so shine before men that they may see their good works and glorify Thee, the Father in heaven, thru Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

TWO HIGH SCHOOL FIVES WILL PLAY ON LOCAL COURT

Bristol Varsity and Junior Varsity to Play Falls Teams

TAP-OFF AT 7.30 P. M.

Triumph Tonight for Bristol Means Lower Bucks Crown

Bristol High's varsity and junior varsity teams have an opportunity of clinching the Lower Bucks County championship tonight when they meet the Falls Township high school quintets on the local court. Opening tap-off is scheduled for 7.30 o'clock.

Coach Harold Stackhouse's boys have won four straight games and have not been beaten in Lower Bucks competition. Their closest opponent in the league race is Morrisville who has already lost two games, so a Bristol triumph tonight means the crown whether it wins or loses its final game of the season with Morrisville.

Falls and Bristol clashed in Trenton on Tuesday night with Bristol being the victors by an overwhelming score. The localites are anxious to repeat and bring the championship back to the local school as they did in football and also give Coach Stackhouse two championships in his first year of coaching at Bristol.

It is most likely that DiAngelo, Keyes, Embess, Oriola and Mandie will be in Bristol's starting line-up.

Coach "Bill" Bartholomew's J. Vees are also planning for a championship. Their record in league competition is the same as the varsity and a win tonight will make them the new Lower Bucks champions. Coach Bartholomew's lads have been beaten but once this season.

CATHOLIC BOYS WILL ATTEMPT WIN TONIGHT

The Catholic Boys Club will attempt to break into the win column of the Bristol Youth League tonight when it meets the Fifth Ward Sports. In the second encounter, the Harriman Methodists meet the Third Ward Eagles.

The Catholic Boys team has lost three straight contests and feel that it is due for its initial triumph. The Eagles must win tonight to stay in the running for the playoffs.

Charles O'Brien Elected Head of Business Men

SOUTH LANGHORNE, Feb. 15.—The Associated Business Men of South Langhorne elected officers last evening when they met at Flannery's Restaurant.

Charles O'Brien succeeds Jacob Weller as president; and others chosen are: Joseph Keating, vice-president; Elwood Buck, secretary-treasurer; Harris Murray, William Shetline and John Vogt, directors.

The committee named to circulate petitions seeking local mail delivery reported that said petitions will be circulated when travel conditions improve.

Conditions of Bellevue Avenue near the Reading Railroad was discussed, and the association was advised that borough council is taking steps to improve such. The need for an overpass at Bellevue Avenue and the railroad was discussed at great length. Traffic frequently is held up for long periods, it was stated, and the condition was described as a "bottle-neck."

Mr. Murray reported that the Langhorne Lions Club will conduct a card party in the near future for benefit of Langhorne high school football squad. Support of the local organization was sought.

An alleged unsanitary condition in the vicinity of Bellevue Avenue and Durham Road was also complained of, and the matter is to be referred to borough council.

A resolution was passed seeking cooperation of the public in showing proper respect for the war memorial plaque at Bellevue Avenue and the highway. Damage was done to it recently. The resolution is to be given place in the public press.

March meeting will be marked by a sea-food dinner and a special entertainment.

The attention of all members is called to the change in the date of meeting from the second Tuesday to the second Monday of each month.

Trio of Men is Killed in Action; One Now Missing

his life in Germany is January 30th.

Staff Sgt. Mullin, who was in his 21st year, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mullin, 330 Cedar Street. A sister, Lorraine, aged 16 years, also survives.

The young man entered the service two years ago, and went overseas last September. He had trained at Camp Atterbury, Ind., and at a camp in South Carolina. He had previously been employed by Hunter Mfg. Corp., at its Emilie plant. Sgt. Mullin was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Pvt. William R. Hardy, aged 19, who is missing in action in France as of January 31st, is the son of Mildred and the late Robert Hardy. His home is at 1146 Beaver Street.

He entered the army infantry in October, 1942, and went overseas last April after training at Camp Wheeler, Ga. He was formerly employed at the plant of Warner Steel, also by Mr. Gosline, a local ice dealer.

Of this amount $929.14 was collected from industrial plants and individuals. The balance was collected through motion picture houses in a drive conducted by the managers on their own initiative.

One-half of the total collected in the township and borough remains in the districts to aid locally the fight against infantile paralysis. The other half is sent to Washington, D. C., to be added to the national fund.

Figures are not available for other districts in the county, it was stated today, with the exception of Trevose School where 232 pupils contributed $156.30.

Farmers "Justified" Over Draft Concern

that it requires that work every day in the year, year in and year out.

In view of grinding routine it is surprising how many boys and girls stay on the farm, become 4-H club members and Future Farmers and go on to farms of their own. At the risk of omitting many such father and son farms we should like to call attention to some outstanding examples: Walter and Norman Leedom; Charles Lowmes and his three sons, Charles, Jr., Bill and Harold; John Thompson and three sons, John, Jr., Harry and Rod; Willard Wright and John and Herb; Milton Satterthwaite and daughter Mary who is really interested in cows and whose 4-H heifer has won top honors for two years; James and Eastburn Smith; Homer and Kendall Tomlinson; Oscar and Clifford States; Isaac Yates and Junior Yates; Harry Wilson and sons, Ted, Philip and Orin Smith; John Stover and sons John and Bob; Joseph Halliwell and son Joseph, Jr. These are but a few of the many we think of off-hand and the recital of them is pertinent at the time when it is considered necessary to take young men from the farm. These boys have grown up on farms and are by now skilled farmers worth far more than unskilled replacements. Moreover they have an interest in the farm and hence make more valuable farmers. This is the normal evolution of our farm families and if we look at many other farmers on their own such as Ed Satterthwaite, Robert Stapler, Irvin Fulmer, Russell Smith, Homer Tomlinson, John Antribus, etc., we recognize them as the Junior partner of a few years ago. (Note how many of these father and son combinations appear on the Honor Roll below.)

HONOR ROLL COWS

3. Walter Leedom	42.1

11. Willard Wright	38.7
12. George Hunsberger	38.4
13. Witchood Farm	38.0
14. Philip Smith	36.1

It has been such a long time since this column came out that we are snowed under with an accumulation of news. February marks the end of the Association testing year and before the final results are tabulated we might borrow a "prediction of things to come" from Drew Pearson and mention that the herds of Isaac Yates, Walter Leedom, Philip Smith, Charles Lowmes and George Hunsberger should be among the top herds for 1944.

Several promising animals have been purchased recently and should help the herds in which they have been placed. John Stover has purchased two registered Holstein cows one of whom made 66 lbs. of butterfat in December. Irvin Fulmer purchased a dandy calf from Milton Satterthwaite last month and then in a buying mood purchased a heifer calf from Joseph Halliwell & Son. He also brought to the lower end of the county calves from the Detweiler and Landis herds. All the calves are exceptionally promising and show that Irvin, who but recently took over the herd after his father's death, is looking ahead. Another excellent purchase was made by Samuel Shaddinger who bought a Dean of the rear grandson, whose dam has made two-yearly records of over 500 lbs. in Joseph Halliwell's herd.

Speaking of the Halliwell herd over near Ivyland makes us pause to mention the record made by that herd in December. Out of twenty cows milking, nine produced between fifty and ninety pounds of butterfat with seven of these producing over sixty pounds of butterfat, and the first four cows on the honor roll for testing group number 2 belonged to J. W. Halliwell & Son. Another herd which has been blazing up the association record trail is that of Willard Wright of Yardley who in January had thirteen out of twenty-six cows on the honor roll making the sizzling average of 46.6 pounds of butterfat per cow for the entire herd.

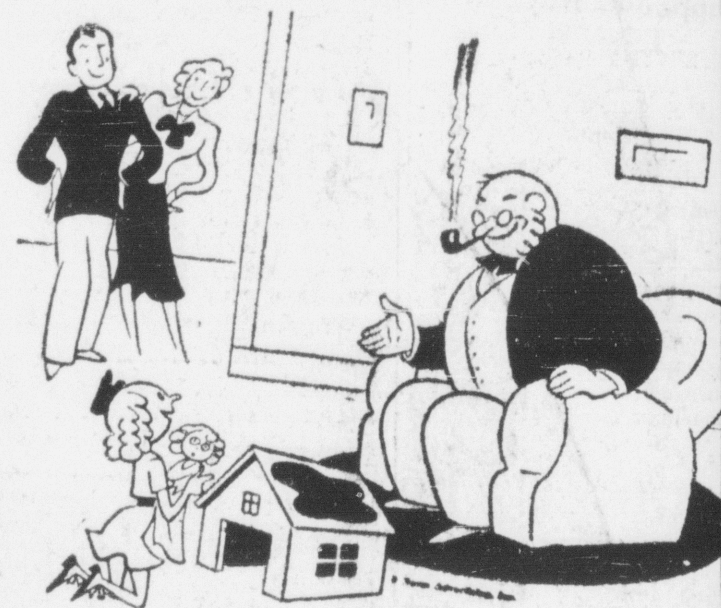

The herd of Homer Wentz has been milking extremely well of late showing the wisdom of his buys last summer when he bought several cows and heifers in the western part of the state. These cows, bred to his fine bull of Dean of the Pearls' son should produce some more fine Holsteins in a few years. Two final sales of bull calves concludes the sales news for this month. In addition to selling a heifer calf to the Fulmer herd Milton Satterthwaite has sold a bull calf to Alfred Krusen and another to George Yates. This makes the fourth bull calf sold from this herd this year and is some indication of how his bull, Dunloggin Confident Leenman's offspring are regarded throughout the county. This bull and the bull owned by Robert Stapler are among the most popular in the artificial breeding work done in the County.
